ORDER DENYING MOTION TO JOIN MAWSS

The Court has reviewed the Motion to Join the Mobile Area Water & Sewer System (“MAWSS”) filed on April 9, 2025, by the Defendant Water Works and Sewer Board of the City of Prichard (“PWWSB”) and the response in opposition filed by the Receiver, John S. Young Jr. LLC. This Court finds that MAWSS is not a necessary party as defined by Ala. Civ. P. R. 19(a) because complete relief can be accorded without MAWSS as a party and because MAWSS does not claim any interest in the subject of this action that would be impaired without its participation. For the same reasons, MAWSS is not an indispensable party under Ala. Civ. P. R. 19(b).

This Court also finds that PWWSB’s motion is in violation of this Court’s Order staying litigation. Further, the same reasons persist in favor of extending the stay of this litigation, and the Court hereby extends the current stay for another 6 months from the date of this order.

WHEREFORE, it is ORDERED, ADJUDGED, and DECREED Defendant’s Rule 19 Motion to Join MAWSS is DENIED. Further, stay of the litigation is extended to 10/13/25 or until further order of this Court.

Entered this 14th day of April, 2025.
